Collection of unselected artworks:

If you haven't been notified that your artwork has been selected for the grand final you must collect it from the library that you submitted it to from Tuesday 17th September 2024 to Saturday 21st September 2024 inclusive. Any artworks not collected by closing time on Saturday 21st September 2024 will be disposed of.

GDPR:

The information you provide will only be used to administer the "Love Where You Live" competition. It will be kept securely and only accessed by staff when needed. It will not be shared with any other organisations save for The Grosvenor Centre. All personal information will be securely destroyed following the conclusion of the exhibition in the library or at the Gathering Space, in the Grosvenor Centre.

Insurance:

Artworks are submitted for selection at the artist's own risk. They will be handled with care but the libraries don't accept liability for loss or damage during the storage, selection and exhibition process.

Display of artworks:

Every effort will be made to put all entries on display however this will not always be possible. Neither the selection or placing of the artwork in the library is open to discussion.

Copyright and publicity:

Copyright remains with the artist; however by submitting it to this competition the artist agrees that photographs and videos of their artwork can be used for promotional purposes.
